

Acts 15:30-16:10
The Second Missionary Journey

Introduction:

This is the time of the year that families go on vacations, that is, we vacate our present job circumstances and take on a time of relaxation and fun. The Bible gives no direct teaching for vacations. When I think of the Lord Jesus himself, the closest thing he had for vacation was going away to a quiet place to pray and meditate. The apostle Paul and his team of missionaries had no leisure time for vacations. They went back to revisit the churches they had first established. (Now I'm not saying that I'm against vacations, I like them and take them) However from the context of Scripture Peter reminds us to "be ready at all times to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give reason of the hope that lies within us." (I Pet. 3:15)
